Stargazers Chapter News

Over the weekend of May 8-10, the Stargazers became one of the first camping groups ever to use the group camp sites at the newly opened "crown jewel" of Colorado State Parks, Cheyenne Mountain State Park. The park is situated just south of Colorado Springs, and is close enough to the Ft. Carson military base to hear Taps being played at 10:00 pm. The group campgrounds have full hook-up sites with beautiful new picnic tables, cooking grills and fire pits.

Views are great from the campsites which are set into the hillside. Looking up, Cheyenne Mountain looms over the camp sites to the west, while the other side overlooks the Colorado Springs skyline and the plains. The park offers many miles of pristine hiking trails and outstanding, brand new facilities. This state park and the group camping area get a "thumbs-up" from the Stargazers.

During the campout, the Stargazers completed the stuffing of the 250 "goody bags" which will be distributed to all participants attending Spring Fling. A special meeting was held two weeks earlier to organize all the great prizes contributed by various businesses around the state.
